

Annette Anderson, President

Annette Anderson is an accomplished professional with a career spanning over three decades in Residential and Commercial Real Estate. Her ability to drive success is built on nurturing relationships and putting clients' needs and goals first.

Starting as an escrow officer in 1994, Annette's organizational skills, proficiency and deep knowledge of escrow matters enabled her to excel in the management of multi-parcel, commercial transactions and complex personal property transfers. Her determination and commitment to excellence quickly accelerated her career path, leading to increased responsibilities and the accumulation of knowledge at each juncture.

Annette's contributions and leadership were acknowledged as she was promoted to the role of VP of Escrow Operations and then in June of 2023, Annette was appointed as the President of Arizona Escrow & Financial Corporation. This appointment reflects her years of dedicated service, her adaptability to change, and her exceptional leadership skills.

As President of Arizona Escrow and Financial, Annette oversees all transactions and she provides seamless coordination between her team, lenders, real estate counsel, real estate agents, builders, buyers and sellers in an assortment of transactions related to personal property transfer and commercial real estate.

Annette is the point person for the firm's expanding escrow services. In her role, she oversees the reconciliation, maintenance and auditing of all escrow accounts and provides education and outreach to industry partners.

Vital to the firm's success, she assists with the organization of the firm's workflow systems and management of personnel. In addition to her leadership responsibilities, she has played a key role in many intricate, multipart commercial transactions. Her keen insights and meticulous approach to her work earned her recognition within the industry.

An active member of the Phoenix business community and proud supporter of her alma mater, Arizona State University, Annette now serves as the Membership Committee Chair for the Arizona Business Brokers Association. Additionally, she is a member of the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce and in 2023, Annette was invited to speak at the Arizona State Escrow Association annual conference.

Outside of her professional achievements, Annette is an avid traveler, seeking inspiration from exploring new places. Her downtime is often spent in the company of her husband and their three dogs, underscoring her appreciation for both adventure and the simple joys of life.
